

EOSC-hub week, 19 May 2020

Session Name EOSC & Industry
Main take-aways	Please list here the main takeaways from the session. A DIH is an ecosystem of start-ups, SMEs, large industries, researchers, and investors that fosters the creation of partnerships to stimulate innovation. Sy Holsinger @EGI Foundation: The EOSC DIH initiative is an international cooperation that supports companies in accessing the digital technologies and services offered by the EOSC. It builds on the EC initiative to onboard industrial partnerships within the EOSC. https://eosc-dih.eu/ Anne-Marie Sassen, @European Commission: European Digital Innovation Hubs provide technological expertise and experimentation facilities to enable the digital transformation of the industry and the public sector. Capacity building of EDIHs: <ul style="list-style-type: none">- Grant for facilities and people to work in the hub, 50% co-funded EU/MS or regions (ERDF may be used), access to European capacities for digital transformation in HPC, AI, Cyber, access to knowledge and facilities of other EDIHs- Every DIH will have their own specialisation related to their own region and local economy- Next steps: finalisation of budget discussion and communication campaign to mobilise community, after Covid-19 crisis Marcin Płóciennik @PSNC gave an overview of EOSC DIH Piloting: <ul style="list-style-type: none">- Pilots follow a detailed implementation plan (design, architecture and technical integration with EOSC, KPIs, dissemination...)- 5 new business pilots onboarded Several DIH pilots presented their work: NetService - Blockchain for university certificates, BI Insight (Business Intelligence, Artificial Intelligence and Big Data technologiesDCP), (Dynamic resource allocation and accounting in a digital marketplace)

Future steps	Please indicate how the outputs of the discussion will be used in the work of the EOSC WGs